
SWC STANFORD 2014-08-14

INTRODUCTIONS

- Instructors:

- Azalee

- Lonnen

- Host: Amy

- Helpers:

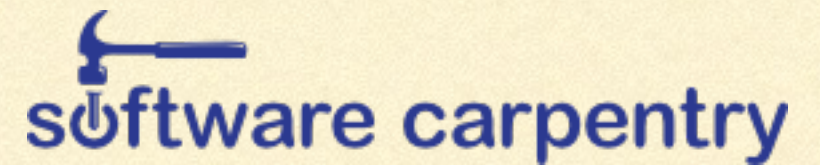

- Dani

- Chris

- Ian

- Matar

WHAT IS SOFTWARE CARPENTRY?

- Greg Wilson
- Bring software industry skills to scientific programming
- reproducible science

HOW IT WORKS:

- Host organized bootcamp:

- travel expenses
- catering
- room reservation
- students

- Instructors and Helpers:

- Volunteers
- Instructor's training

- What you can do:

- Instruct or Help
 - Contribute to lessons
 - Spread the word
-

LIFE AFTER SWC

- Build a community at Stanford
 - Mailing list
 - Recurring meeting
 - Peer review
 - You will each be exploring new areas of coding that you can share with your fellow classmates
-

USEFUL WEBSITES

- Schedule:
 - <http://abostroem.github.io/2014-08-14-stanford/>
 - Etherpad:
 - <https://abostroem.etherpad.mozilla.org/stanford>
 - Software Carpentry:
 - <https://abostroem.etherpad.mozilla.org/stanford>
-

EXERCISE

- Load the etherpad: <https://abostroem.etherpad.mozilla.org/stanford>
 - Enter your name in the upper right hand box
 - say hi in the chat window
 - Put your Green post-it on the back of your laptop when you are done
-